Dear Bud:

Thank you for the very moving and sensitive letter you wrote to Walter Burch which I, in turn, had an opportunity to read. I felt very keenly the penetrating analysis that you offered of the situation as it stands in our brotherhood today. I commend you for the integrity with which you made your decision and by which you are continuing to live your life, an integrity that may some day also demand that you again preach the gospel full time.

I do know that you will be of great benefit to those with whom you associate in business. I can think of no one who could bring so many powerful capabilities to bear on a business challenge that you can and who at the same time could do a better job with placing it in a spiritual dimension.

I send you my prayers and best wishes. Let me know if I can be of help to you at any time and in any way.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

P.S. I regretted to hear that Dale Hulett had also resigned. If you know his new address, I would appreciate your sending it to me.
